Crazy as I may make my way through this world It's for you and for me to say what direction I shall take I am the captain of this ship Carpous hands and fingertips Day after day how I long
to see my love how I long Strange but it seems like there's a muggy brewing inside me But I don't want your pity only the promise that you'll stay with me tonight
Now I am the captain of my ship I'll sail on
Day after day how I long
to see my love how I long
Oh how could I even try to fight
Oh how could I even try to fight
after falling into your arms?
Oh mesmerized by your smile the way it looks up under our eyes Oh how could I even try love you I you stay with me?
The same old song
Won't you come dance with me my love after all

What you got what you got in your hand?
a ship, said to son I got the whole world here Daddy between my fingers and my thumb Will you take care of it please—it's the only one well it would take me a lifetime old man to undo what you've done Oh come on now boy think—what would Jesus do?
he shakes his head like an empty mallet
I shook the boy and say I did what I could do But you take care of it please It's the only one you got and it'd take an eternity boy to undo what I've done Boy shrugged walked away
The man stood and watched as he was leaving Boy just walked away
The man stood there thinking One hand's holding the other hand's holding As I stand here—the ground beneath is nothing more than one point of view
What you got what you got in your hand?
your secret's safe with the well I found the truth friend Let me whisper in your ear I've found yours if it please As the only one there is Can I trust it please can I trust it just a little trust
One hand is open and the other hand holds the gun Everything is open Words are falling coming down, down, down
No one is hiding, even if you know You never know it all I'm not more than the point of view
Boy shrugged walked away
The man stood there watching
The man stood there watching

Look at the way we've been doing it. It's not working. So we've got to change it. And we've got to change it now. We've got to change it now.
